TUESDAY, APRIL 20, 1881. Foreign News.

Gladstone's Irish Land Bill is likely to pass in the House of Commons; 90 of the 103 Irish members had promised to vote for it on the second reading. The Saturday Review says of it:
"Practically the Bill throws the soil of Ireland into the hands of a Land Commission, who assign it to tenants, charged with an annuity to landlords."

Bradlaugh has been re-elected at Northampton by a narrow majority.

Is this information.

The Wachusett.—The U. S. stmr Wachusett, Commander E. P. Lull, arrived on the 18th inst. from San Francisco, from which port she had been dispatched on the 1st. in quest of the then overdue steamer City of New York, in quest of the then o by a narrow majority. Lord Beaconsfield has been seriously ill, and his condition still (April 9th) caused great anxiety. Two physicians were in attendance on him all night. The Duke of Argyle has retired from the Cabinet, disagreeing with the Land Bill. It is reported that Lord Carlingford will be his O'Donnell has given details of the attempt on the Mansion House. He says that there were six men engaged in the plot. It was decided that if the Coercion bill passed, vengeance was to be wreaked somewhere. The Lord Mayor was selected, because he, although himself an Irishman, was a strong advocate of coercion, and voted for it. In a box were 100 pounds of Giant powder, and the box was bound with the strongest hoop iron. At the Egyption Hall side of the Mansion House, where the attempt was made, there are three policemen on guard around the semi-circle which is there formed by George Street and St. Swithen's Lane. Each officer patrols his post every four minutes. Coleman took the box under his arm and walked close behind an officer until he came to a niche in the built-up window. Coleman rapidly conveyed the box to the niche, reaching over an iron rail to do so, and placing a piece of carpet on the base of the niche to deaden the sound of the box as it fell upon it. He then gave the box an inward slant, so that the force of the concussion would be directed inward. He cut fuses to reach the powder in a minute and a half, or about a minute before the policemaa would have returned. As he left he met a woman and child. Coleman joined his accomplices, who waited a few blocks away for the report, but the woman observed the fuse on fire, and the policeman, whom she summoned, cut it when about a couple of inches from the powder, and saved the Mansion House.

Great floods had again occurred in Spain. Both Seville and Malaga were, at one time, in imminent danger, and much loss of life had happened in the submerged districts. The terms to be submitted to Greece and Turkey by the Great Powers are fixed upon, and it is understood that Greece has received plain intimation that if she does not accept them she will get no national aid in the event of war with Turkey. The Greek Government are straining every nerve to be prepared for war, and there can be little doubt that both Greeks and Turks would much rather fight it out, if assured that on-lookers would let them alone.

Commencing on the afternoon of Sunday, April 3rd, a series of earthquakes devastated the Isle of Scio, almost entirely destroying the principal town, and many others. It is believed that, out of the 70,000 inhabitants of the island, one tenth were killed by being buried under falling buildings, and that twice as many more are more or iess injured. About 30,000 people were left without shelter. One marvellous escape is recorded. A woman who was buried under ruins 52 hours, was recovered alive, having

Governor of Okenburg, are regarded as indicating a strong Sclavonic and reactionary tendency on the part of the new Czar. It is probable that he recognizes that the cultivation of a strong National feeling is the best safeguard against the spread of Nihilist doctrine. The murder of the late Czar has caused a reaction of public sentiment, which will naturally strengthen the hands of the present Czar. The trial of the Nihlist conspirators was going on at St. Petersburg. After the indictments were read, the prisoners made statements in which they confessed themselves conspirators, and all, more or less, participators in the assassination of the Czar, and in previous attempts thereat. They one and all give political reasons only for their crime. They claim that their wish was to gain their objects by a peaceful propaganda, but, being unsuccessful in that way, they were "reluctantly abliged to adopt terrorist measures. The terms of peace which Chile proposes to enforce on Peru, are a cession of territory; a war indemnity in money, and one-half the revenues derived from the guano islands. The indemnity is to cover all expenses of the war, and claims of Chileans for vessels destroyed, and for losses through being expelled from Peru and Bolivia. Chile is to hold the guano islands until the indemnity is paid, and to have the right to maintain a force of 10,000 men on Peruvian soil for the same period. Peru and Bolivia are now joined under one government. When the City of New York soiled from San Francisco, the Missouri, at Omaha, had entirely submerged the lower-lying part of the city. In the neighborhood of Council Bluffs 5,000 people were rendered homeless by the flood, and the river was doing considerable damage to railway and other works.

Leadville mines. On Thursday, April 7th, Messrs Moody and Sankey held their last service in San Francisco, at the church of the Rev. Dr. Stone. Mr. Moody, at the conclusion of the service, told the audience that he had, on his arrival, set his heart on freeing the Y. M. C. A. from a debt of nearly $84,800, by which it was burdened. He had secured promises to the extent of $78,000. conditional on the rest being raised, and also a promise of $6,000 from one person, for future chance work, on the same condition. He e to provide at once the further so out to clear off the debt. A lady in the connet allog sent up her name for $500; then followed 39 subscriptions of $100 each; then nother $500, and before the meeting closed the whole $1,000 had been secured. The sitemey for Mr. Whitehead, the secret of the torpedoes was purchased by the British Government some years ago, but refused by the Government of the United States, has preferred a charge to the latter Government that his secret on obtained by improper means by U. S. officers, and asks that the drawings of the to pedo be given up, and the U. S. Navy forbidden to use the invention. Commodore Jeffers, Chief of the Bureau of Ordnance of the Navy Department, acknowledges having had the information voluntarily sent to him by naval officers, but says he does not know where they got it from. He adds: "I am of the opinion that it was not only the right but the duty of every officer of the navy to make himself acquainted with every means of warfare to be used by the possible enemies of his country, provided always that he does not corrupt any employe; and says the owners of secrets are bound to to take care of them, but his Department is bound to get hold of them whenever they can.'

Thomas Carlyle has, by his will, given the books he used when writing the lives of Oliver Cromwell and Frederic the Great, to the Harvard University.

Commodore J. C. McDougal, U. S. N., Inspector of Lighthouses for the Pacific coast, was, with a friend, Mr. Balter, and one of the seamen of the Manzanita, drowned, whilst attempt ing to land at Mendocino lighthouse. The United States Senators are very sulky about the new President's nominations, and have created a "dead-lock" by refusing to go into executive session, to consider the reorganiminority there, but demand to have a voice in the selection of officers, and, with the assistance of some of the dissatisfied Republicans, succeeded in carrying the above-mentioned vote. P. M. S. S. Co.'s Time Table for 1881. FOR SAN FRANCISCO, FOR SYDNEY AND AUCKLAND making the distribution for the Quarter, 11,500 tons, or at the rate of 46,000 tons for the year. The grocery trade is now obtaining what sugar it wants of the natural Hawai-ian product at a fair advance on cost to the contractors. These sugars if sent here for epen market would in the bulk naturally gravitate in price to the cost of Manila or other sugars, and with an excessive offering of choice grocery grades might produce an autagonism to bring prices below the Manila basis, which still remains at our last quotations. High freights from that port prevent any advance. Last sales of Cuba Centrifugal Sugars in New York were at .08c for 95 degrees polarization. Market firm.
